Let's Sail Away

© Lyrics and music: Christian Lander, 2021.08.02

1.
Cast off from bow and stern
We'll sail away from all the guards
To a land where only love resides
Where everyone is like a sister or brother
Here we shall love, you and I
Cuddle and snuggle every day, forever
Jeannette, my darling, take my hand

2.
We need neither compass nor map
The winds of love are clever
They will carry us to a magical land
Beyond the horizon lies such a shore
Here I shall caress your body, warm with desire
Until the sun sets and rises again
Jeannette, my everything, let's sail away

3.
This bridge of stress and anxiety
That tries to make us believe we're safe
No, let's cast off from bow and stern
And rather sway to the rhythms of love
The tide comes in and the tide goes out
We must make the most of the chances we get
Jeannette, my dream, come aboard

4.
Jeannette, my everything, let's sail away
We already have everything we could wish for
We have more than we need
Well, we have money to spare
Let's love and devote our time to each other
As long as we're alive and still able
There's only you for me, Jeannette

5.
So, cast off from bow and stern
Pray to the weather gods
With warm winds filling our sails
At night the sea is smooth as a mirror
Desire is our home port
Here we lie safely in each other's arms
Jeannette, my everything, let's sail away