

Ring the bell

Lyrics by Christian Lander, 2021.02.05

Ring, ring the bell, I'm lost in the mist
Ring, ring the bell, Can't even see my own fist

It used to be so easy, now I'm not so sure
It used to be so clear, now I'm rather unsecure
Ship to shore, it's like I'm lost at sea
Ship to shore, tell me, what's happening to me

Ring, ring the bell, I'm lost in the mist
Ring, ring the bell, can't even see my own fist

In the mist, directions are lost so fast
Don't know, how long it's gonna last
In the mist, it's like insanity
Don't know, what's gonna be with me

Ring, ring the bell
I said; Ring, ring the bell

Ring, ring, ring, I got to ring the bell
I can see, no way ahead
Got to ring, I got to ring that bell
Lost my directions, running out of hope
I'm so confused, confused and scared

Oh, God please, ship to shore
I don't want to be out here anymore
Here me crying, hear me shout
I'm in the mist and I need to get out
