Down at the Boatyard

© Lyrics and music: Christian Lander, 2026.08.11

1.
Down at the boatyard
Here I am now
You may not see me, but
I'm talking to a lady
An abandoned old boat
With neither owner nor name
Where have you been?
Are your memories still alive
... somewhere

2.
At the old boatyard
Quiet as a cemetery
Only the waves breaking
A few gulls stopping by
No more machines whirring
No clattering, scraping or groaning
Blue overalls and caps
Are they hanging on a hook
... somewhere

3.
Here at the old boatyard
We rest on dry land
Forgotten by time
Yet we remain somewhere

4.
Down at the boatyard
Here you will find me
My guitar no longer played
My song no longer sung

5.
Down at the boatyard
Here I am now
Down at the boatyard
Forgotten by time

6.
But the feel of the sea
Of your sun-drenched body
Your beautiful smile
That love will remain forever
... somewhere

7.
Down at the boatyard
Here I am now
At the old boatyard
Forgotten by time

8.
Down at the boatyard
Here you will find me now
In the sound of the waves, and in
The wind that caresses your cheek