1.
Throw loose in fore and aft
We sail away from all guards
To the land where only love lives
Where everyone is like sister and brother
Here we shall make love, you and I
Cuddling and petting every single day
Jeannette, my love, take my hand
2.
Neither compass nor map is needed
The winds of love, they are clever
They will take us to a magical land
Beyond the horizon is such a beach
Here I shall caress your hot body
Until the sun sets and rises again
Jeannette, my everything, let us go
3.
This bridge of stress and anxiety
Who want to make us believe that we are safe
No, cast loose fore and aft
Let us rather roll to the beats of love
The tide comes and the tide goes away
We must take advantage of the chances we get
Jeannette, my darling, come aboard
4.
Jeannette, my everything, let us go
We have everything, that we want
We have more, than what we need
Well, we have cash enough to spend
Let us love and spend time with each other
As long as we live and still are able to
There is only you for me, Jeannette
5.
So, throw loose in fore and aft
Say a prayer to the powers of the weather
With warm winds in our sails
At night a sea as clear as a mirror
Love desire is our home port
Here we lie safely in each other's arms
Jeannette, my everything, let us go
