I've got power

I've got air

I've got wind blowing in my hair

I've got life, brother,

enough to share

But my heart, honey, I shall spare

I can breathe, yea, and I dare

Breaking waves, no, I don't care

Have no choice now, I'm aware

Not to find you, I couldn't bear

I am on the move now

Don't know where to

Still I'm sure, somehow

Babe, I am coming for you

I've got power

I've got air

I've got wind blowing in my hair

Every mile I go, love,

gets me closer to you

One day my dream shall come true

I've got power

I've got air

I've got wind blowing

In my hair
