Sitting on that mountain high

Looking out beyond the open sky

In the geometry of infinity

Rational thoughts makes no sense

Exploding colors healing scars

Blind enough to see it all

Is this a friendly spirit softly kissing my heart

Or just demons in my mind feasting on my soul

You are here among your friends

Just relax and enjoy the ride

Now you are safe, loved and warm

Don't be scared, no worries, no more

Will I ever be myself again

Walking among the ruins

Of the city center

Nature growing through the concrete

Stars above lightening up the path

Smiling people in the alleys

Silently moving around

Is this a friendly spirit softly kissing my heart

Or just demons in my mind feasting on my soul

You are here among your friends

Just relax and enjoy the ride

Now you are safe, loved and warm

Don't be scared, no worries, no more

Will I ever be myself again

Climbing up a winding waterfall

At the top I'll understand it all

Half way up a child explains

Once succeeded there's no return

Takes my hand and helps me down

Got to wait because life is short

Is this a friendly spirit softly kissing my heart

Or just demons in my mind feasting on my soul

Is this a friendly spirit softly kissing my heart

Or just demons in my mind feasting on my soul
