Somewhere, out there
I know you are there
I can feel you inside of me

I need to find you
I know I'm gonna find you
I can tell you are a part of me

I'm gonna search in every city
Cross every ocean and mountain
I know we are meant to be

Nothing, nothing can ever stop me
No matter what comes in my way

I'm gonna find you baby
Oh, Yes I am
Cause finally
Yes, finally it must be you and me

A horizontal golden light streak is positioned at the bottom of the page, spanning most of its width. It has a soft, glowing appearance with a slight gradient, giving it the look of a distant light source or a decorative element.
