Like a mirage in the horizon	You are the only one for me
You came into my life	In the ocean of eternity
Like the loveliest island	Like a powerful volcano
For a man long lost at sea	Your love is a burning fire
	A crystal clear waterfall
Happily dropping my anchor	A blooming garden full of fruits
In this calm and peaceful bay
Search is over, destination found	You are the island of my dreams
Finally I can go ashore	The island I have been longing for My true happiness depends on you
How could I have expected this	My love is bound to you alone
Seeing you for the first time
Yet knowing you since ever	Let me be with you, now and forever
Did you know me already too?	Prove my love every day
	My body shivers, my knees are weak
You are the loveliest creation	My heart is aching and my brain runs dry
That God ever made	You are the most beautiful woman
My body shivers, my knees are weak	My love to you can never die
My heart is aching and my brain runs dry	My body shivers, my knees are weak
Will you take my hand, be my bride?	My heart is aching and my brain runs dry
Ah, won't you, please	Will you take my hand, be my bride?
	Ah, won't you, please
How could I have expected this
Seeing you for the first time	Will you take my hand and be my bride?
Let me feel you close to me	Oh, please, please, please say yes
Let me love you day and night	I love you infinitely much
	And I will love you forever more
